CONTENTS

Preface W. Roger Buck, Paul T. Delaney, Jeffrey A. Karson, Yves Lagabrielle	vii
Global Systematics of Mid-Ocean Ridge Morphology Christopher Small	1
Linkages Between Faulting, Volcanism, Hydrothermal Activity and Segmentation on Fast Spreading Centers Ken C. Macdonald	27
Magmatism at Mid-Ocean Ridges: Constraints from Volcanological and Geochemical Investigations Michael R. Perfit and William W. Chadwick, Jr.	59
Geological Consequences of Dike Intrusion at Mid-Ocean Ridge Spreading Centers Daniel Curewitz and Jeffrey A. Karson	117
Formation and Development of Fissures at the East Pacific Rise: Implications for Faulting and Magmatism at Mid-Ocean Ridges Dawn J. Wright	137
Ultramafic-Mafic Plutonic Rock Suites Exposed Along the Mid-Atlantic Ridge (10°N-30°N) Symmetrical-Asymmetrical Distribution and Implications for Seafloor Spreading Processes Yves Lagabrielle, Daniel Bideau, Mathilde Cannat, Jeffrey A. Karson, and Catherine Mével	153
Internal Structure of Oceanic Lithosphere: A Perspective from Tectonic Windows Jeffrey A. Karson	177
Structure of Modern Oceanic Crust and Ophiolites and Implications for Faulting and Magmatism at Oceanic Spreading Centers Yildirim Dilek, Eldridge M. Moores, and Harald Furnes	219
Periodic Formation of Magma Fractures and Generation of Layered Gabbros in the Lower Crust Beneath Oceanic Spreading Ridges Peter B. Kelemen and Einat Aharonov	267
The Rheology of the Lower Oceanic Crust: Implications for Lithospheric Deformation at Mid-Ocean Ridges Greg Hirth, Javier Escartín, and Jian Lin	291
Mechanics of Stretching Elastic-Plastic-Viscous Layers: Applications to Slow-Spreading Mid-Ocean Ridges Alexei N. B. Poliakov and W. Roger Buck	305
Normal Fault Growth in Three Dimensions in Continental and Oceanic Crust Patience A. Cowie	325
